□ 1559

Mr. SALMON changed his vote from "nay" to "yea."
So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mrs. CHENOWETH-HAGE. Mr. Speaker, I missed several votes today due to an illness. Had I been present I would have voted "nay" on rollcall vote 396 (Mr. GREENWOOD's amendment to H.R. 4811); "nay" on rollcall vote 397 (Ms. WATERS' amendment to H.R. 4811); "nay" on rollcall 398 (Ms. LEE's amendment to H.R. 4811); "yea" on rollcall vote 399 (Mr. BE-REUTER's amendment to H.R. 4811); and "nay" on rollcall vote 400 (on Passage of H.R. 4811).

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Mr. BONIOR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I take this time to inquire from the distinguished majority leader the schedule for the week and next week.

I yield to the gentleman from Texas (Mr. ARMEY).

Mr. ARMEY. I thank the gentleman from Michigan for yielding.

Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to announce that the House has completed its legislative business for the week.

The House will next meet on Monday, July 17, at 12:30 p.m. for morning hour and 2 p.m. for legislative business. We will consider a number of measures under suspension of the rules, a list of which will be distributed to Members' offices tomorrow. On Monday, no recorded votes are expected before 7 o'clock p.m.

On Tuesday, July 18, and the balance of the week, the House will consider the following measures, subject to rules: H.J. Res. 103, disapproving the extension of annual normal trade relations with respect to China; the Comprehensive Retirement Security and Pension Reform Act; and the Treasury, Postal Service and General Government Appropriations Act for fiscal year 2001.

Mr. Speaker, we also expect to consider conference reports next week, including DOD appropriations and the Marriage Tax Penalty Relief Act, should they become available.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the gentleman for yielding me this time.

Mr. BONIOR. I thank my colleague. A couple of questions, if I may. Do we expect late nights next week?

Mr. ARMEY. If the gentleman will yield, I should say it pleases me to tell the gentleman I do not expect late nights next week. I think we have been through a very difficult time. We have one appropriations bill that will be on the floor under the 5-minute rule, and, of course, it is very difficult to project how those bills will go, but I think with continued cooperation between the Members at large and the bill managers, we should be able to contain that to a well-managed proposition, and frankly, I have to say in all optimism, I do not expect that we are going to those tortured late nights next week.

Mr. BONIOR. Does the gentleman expect us to be in on Friday next?

Mr. ARMEY. At this time I think I have to reserve an expectation that we will be. We do have two or three very important bills we would like to complete next week. There will be questions of timing as we look for conference reports to return or perhaps the parliamentary processes as it relates to the Marriage Penalty Relief Act. So we will just have to reserve Friday of next week. Should that change as the week develops, I will announce it as soon as possible to the Members.

Mr. BONIOR. May I ask the distinguished gentleman from Texas what day he expects the pension IRA bill to come to the floor of the House?

Mr. ARMEY. I thank the gentleman for asking that. I would expect probably on Wednesday.

Mr. BONIOR. I thank my colleague. Finally, on the China MFN debate, the annual hour of debate, I suspect that is what we will have, is there a day that the gentleman has designated for that particular exercise?

Mr. ARMEY. I appreciate the gentleman asking. I would think that on any day next week. I think with a bill that is that easily managed, we would just try on appropriate notice to move it when it best fits the rest of the scheduling requirements.

Mr. BONIOR. I thank my colleague for his courtesies and for offering us a summation of what we can expect next week. I wish him a good weekend.

Mr. ARMEY. If the gentleman would continue to yield, I have just decided we will move that China trade bill on Tuesday.

Mr. BONIOR. The China bill on Tuesday. I thank the gentleman.

ADJOURNMENT TO MONDAY, JULY 17, 2000

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet at 12:30 p.m. on Monday next for morning hour debates.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. PEASE). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

DISPENSING WITH CALENDAR WEDNESDAY BUSINESS ON WEDNESDAY NEXT

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the business in order under the Calendar Wednesday rule be dispensed with on Wednesday next.
